Residence

A private bedroom of your own

Your NU Home

Our top-rated residences will make you feel right at home. You can count on making fast friends within your residence community while also enjoying the luxury of a private room of your own in a four-bedroom suite. Living in residence means you'll be surrounded with personal and academic supports, new friends from around the world, and exciting experiences and memories that will last long after graduation.

Be Part of the Action!

Get involved and make lifelong friendships by taking part in movie nights, road hockey tournaments, board games, paint nights, cooking tutorials, ping-pong tournaments and more! Our dedicated student leaders always have something exciting planned. Have an idea for your own event? Let our student leaders know and they'll make it happen!

Lakers Support Lakers

From the moment you step into residence at Nipissing University, you're part of a vibrant community filled with helpful and caring student leaders. Residence Dons are supportive and fun upper-year students who organize events, monitor community safety, and offer a helping hand around-the-clock. Community Assistants are upper-year students who help students take accountability for, and positively contribute to, the residence community. Academic Dons help you build your academic skills outside the classroom, and the Residents' Council Executives advocate on your behalf and lead exciting events.

Service is a Step Away

Every residence building features its own Front Desk with supports and services available to all residents. Whether you need to get laundry change, have an essay printed, grab some dish soap, borrow a board game, or have a question, the Residence Front Desk is your place to go.

Living Learning Communities

Live with friends who like the same things you do in one of our four Living Learning Communities (LLC). The communities bring together students who share similar interests, and provide an immediate support network.
